Dr. Grant has been sick and confined to his bed for nearly a week, and as he would have been compelled to go to Lexington that day, he was forced to let the offer pass. Dr. Grant is a splendid physician and surgeon, and would have been a valuable man in the regiment.

New Deputy Collector.

Collector Yerkes has appointed Millard West, of this city, as deputy collector to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Thomas Austin. The latter will take the place of assistant assessor under Jas. McCarty. Mr. West's division consists of Garrard, Madison, Estill, Rockcastle and Jackson. He will enter upon his duties today. MR. AND MRS. H. N. PAULSONER.

Reduces.

Over at Stanford, the Farmers Bank & Trust Co., decided to reduce its capital from $200,000 to $100,000 instead of going into liquidation. Dr. J. B. Owsley, cashier, tells the Interior Journal that the $100,000 reduction will be payable to every stockholder July 1, in full, something no other bank has ever done on a reduction of this section.

A Warrior, Bold.

Doc Penny, the clever and popular Stanford dentist, has laid aside his tooth carpenter's equipment and is buckled on the sword to fight, bleed, and, if necessary, die for his country. Doc has raised the required number of men and will be mustered into the 6th U. S. Vol. Infantry at Knoxville. We understand he has a good lot of men. If they are all as good as their commander, Lincoln will surely be proud of the company.

Tyre Logan Harris.

After a few weeks illness Judge T. L. Harris died Friday night at his home near Lancaster. Judge Harris was in his 74th year. He was a widely-known man, and a good citizen. He lived on his farm, with his two aged sisters, who survive him. Judge Harris never joined any church, but he was an enthusiastic Mason, and this fact goes to show that he was a firm believer in Almighty God. He was liked by everybody and made friends of everyone he met. Rev. Clark, of the Methodist church, held a brief service at the house Saturday at 3 o'clock, after which the Masonic fraternity took charge of the remains and interred them in the family burying ground near the residence.

Guards Replaced.

As stated in last issue, the guards on the Richmond pike were removed by Judge Burnside. President Doty went with his attorney to Stanford and brought back an order from Judge Saulley to replace them and it was done. THE RECORD asked Judge Burnside why the guards were taken off and he said that unless guards were on both the Madison and Garrard sides of the Paint Lick bridge, it was no use to keep them on this side, as the bridge, which is a long one, could be fired from the Madison side and the Garrard guards would have no right to shoot at them. As to the other guards, he said they were on duty at a little bridge which could be replaced for $10 or $15. He told the road's attorney that rather than have the county pay four dollars a night for guards for an indefinite time, he would remove them, and, in case the little bridge was burned he would have it replaced at the expense of the county, it being much cheaper for the county than paying a big sum for guards. The four guards are on duty now, and costs the county $8 a night.

Low Rates to Washington, D. C. and Eastern Cities.

On account of the meeting of the National Educational Convention at Washington, D. C. July 8th to 15th, the Chesapeake and Ohio Ry. will sell round trip tickets to Washington from all stations in Kentucky on July 3rd to 6th inc. at one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip, good to return until July 15th, and subject to an extension of time until August 31st by depositing tickets with the Joint Agent in Washington on or before July 13th. This is your opportunity to visit Philadelphia, New York and the seashore. Low-rate side trips can be made from Washington to Old Point Comfort and the Seashore.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Ry. has two limited vestibuled trains each way daily without change. Its scenery is unsurpassed, its train service unequalled, and it is several hours quicker than all Central Kentucky points than so-called "Official Routes" via Cincinnati. "A glance at the map will convince you." Avoid delays and changes by taking the Chesapeake and Ohio trains. For sleeping car reservation, or any information write or call on your Ticket Agent, or Geo. W. BARNEY, Div. Pass. Agt., Lexington, Ky.

Bank at Paint Lick.

There is considerable talk of establishing a bank at Paint Lick. There is lots of wealth and abundance of push and hustle in that section, and the good people up there once set their heads on having the bank, she will be forthcoming.

Dull Court Day.

Not many farmers left their work to come to town Monday, consequently the crowd was slim, business was dull and the day a flat failure. Probably one hundred cattle were on the market. Butcher stuff brought from 2 to 2 1/2 cents, some yearlings were sold at $25, heifers at from $14 to $17. Several plug horses offered but none sold.

Fair at Hustonville.

The Hustonville people are hustling around getting premiums for their fair, which will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Aug. 10, 11 and 12. The following are the officers: W. Gill Cowan, president; J. K. Baughman, vice president; W. D. Hoeker, secretary; C. W. Adams, assistant secretary, and Janus H. Hoeker, treasurer. The Hustonville people know how to hold a fair and they are always successful.

Popular Young Folks Marry.

Mr. Marshall Archer stole quietly over to Nicholasville Wednesday, and, as prearranged, met Miss Fannie Underwood. The couple drove into Lexington and were married in the parlors of the Phoenix Hotel. The bride resides on Danville street, this city, and is quite popular. She has a splendid education and is a lovely young lady. Mr. Archer is running a meat market in this city, and is a young man of splendid habits and well liked by all. THE RECORD congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Archer, and hopes they may never have cause to regret the step just taken.

Kentucky State Teachers' Special to Washington.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Ry., will run a special limited Vestibule train to Washington, leaving Lexington at 6 p. m. Wednesday, July 6th and arriving in Washington at 11:30 a. m., next morning. This train will carry the Kentucky Delegation of Teachers to the National Educational Convention. A dining car will be attached and meals will be served for 75 cents. Tickets on sale July 3rd to 6th inclusive at one fare plus two dollars for round trip, good returning until August 31st, if desired.

Return tickets will be good from Richmond, Va., and a very low rate has been made from Washington to Richmond via Steamer and Old Point Comfort, thus giving the only opportunity to visit the most beautiful Seashore Resort on the Atlantic Coast. Send in your name for maps, time tables or sleeping car information. Don't be deceived! The Chesapeake & Ohio Ry., is the only line from Central Kentucky points to Washington, without transfer of cars or depots. Ask your ticket Agent or write, George W. Barney, Div. Pass. Agt., Lexington, Ky.

Hang Out Your Banner.

It has been suggested that the business houses decorate with flags Monday, 4th. It would be well to revive this oldtime custom. If you have no flags, Crow Dillon has an abundant supply which was furnished him by the government to give away.

July 4th.

The Queen & Crescent Route will sell round trip tickets from all stations to any point on the system, and to principal southern points in general, at a fare and a third for the round trip. Tickets on sale July 2nd, 3rd, and 4th. Good till 7th to return. Ask agents for particulars or see small bills.

Fence Up.

Will Gill, of the notorious Gill and Story gang, who have been terrorizing Garrard, Madison and Lincoln counties by their daring thefts, was before Judge Burnside and made startling confessions of much of the devilment this gang has been doing. He implicated Toll Gill and George Story, two near relatives, in all and said they had been operating together for sometime. Gill was held to the grand jury in $400. Warrants have been issued for the rest of the gang.

Deaf and Dumb Rapist.

Kert Macfarland, a deaf and dumb negro boy, was before Judge Burnside Wednesday charged with attempting to rape a white lady named Mrs. Betsy Pointer, near Cartersville. Mrs. Pointer, who is 63 years old, had started to a neighbor's house and the negro attacked her while passing through some bushes. At the trial the negro took a stubborn spell and would furnish no information, either by writing or signs. He was held to circuit court in $500.00, which could not be given and he was placed in jail.
